

Campbell Museums Children's Writing Contest Photo and Artwork Release Form

Use of Images of Participants and Original Artwork

Purpose: The Campbell Museums is running a Children's Writing Contest for local children. The museum may photograph or record participating children and their original submitted artwork to document and promote the contest and related educational activities. These images (of the child and/or the artwork) may be used for marketing and promotional purposes only — including printed materials, social media, newsletters, reports to the City of Campbell, museum website content, and displays at the Campbell Historical Museum.

The Campbell Museums agrees not to sell, license, or distribute these images or the original artwork beyond the scope described above. The child's last name and school will never be used. Only the child's first name may appear with any images of the artwork.

Parent/Guardian Consent – Images of the Child

I, the undersigned, am the parent or legal guardian of the child named below. I grant permission for the Campbell Museums to photograph, record, and/or use my child's image, likeness, or voice for museum marketing and promotional purposes related to the Children's Writing Contest only.

I understand that:

- Only the child's first name will be used; the last name and school will never be published.
- The images may appear in museum materials (print, online, or digital) that promote the contest.
- The Campbell Museums will not sell or use these images for any purpose beyond those stated above.

- I may withdraw consent at any time by providing written notice to the museum.
