

The Campbell Museum Foundation

A NON-PROFIT FRIENDS GROUP SUPPORTING THE CAMPBELL MUSEUMS

Mission

The Campbell Museum's mission is to interpret to a broad audience, in innovative and meaningful ways, the history of the Campbell area from its original inhabitants to today's 21st century setting, and to relate that history within the broader context of the Santa Clara Valley and encompassing region.

About the Campbell Museum Foundation

- A nonprofit public benefit corporation whose mission is to support the Campbell Museums (Campbell Historical Museum & Ainsley House) with volunteer effort and financial assistance.
- Provides services and raises funds to support exhibit and educational programs.
- Develops, cultivates, and advocates greater public interest in the Campbell Museums.
- Receives donations and grants and other funds on behalf of the Campbell Museums.
- Established in 1993, the foundation received 501c3 nonprofit status in 1995.
- All volunteer organization
- Hosts several fundraising events and operates a Museum Boutique to help support Campbell Museum Operations.

Responsibilities

- Working Foundation: members work (volunteer their time) to help support the Campbell Museums.
- Members serve on committees- actively work toward fundraising goals, help promote the museum through marketing, museum membership program, or museum store operation.
- Members commit to attend one board meeting per month and actively support the museums through actively participating in museum programs, events, and membership campaigns.
